

THE QUEST FOR TERRITORIAL EXPANSION

The Billings Montana Scottish Rite Valley and all of its charities cover the same gigantic territory; essentially all of eastern Montana. Because our speech and language charity depends on the presence and availability of licensed speech and language clinicians, the children presently benefitted are located in the Billings area. We would like to expand wherever in eastern Montana licensed clinicians who are willing to participate can be found. There is no doubt that there are children in need everywhere. That expansion has been limited by lack of funds
